Meetings Industry Council of Colorado
 19th Annual Educational Conference and Trade Show

Denver, CO - The Meetings Industry Council (MIC) of Colorado hosted 1,117 registered attendees for the 19th Annual MIC Conference & Trade Show on March 12 and 13, 2019. Feedback from those that attended the two-day conference at the Colorado Convention Center declared it a resounded success despite the snow storm.

The first day of the conference included a deep dive meeting strategy workshop for meeting professionals with Michael Dominguez, moderated by Christy Lamagna. The day continued with the Opening Keynote address with Tami Evans, noted author, professional speaker and engagement expert.

The second day of the conference opened with a thought-provoking look into how leaders and organizations accelerate their progress to the future with Peter Sheahan, followed by a diverse lineup of educational concurrent sessions on numerous industry trends such as designing events with empathy, bringing mindfulness to meetings and leadership.

The 2019 luncheon & awards included the 2018 MIC Leadership Award presented to Sidney Stoper, J&S Audio Visual as well as the MIC Chair Award, presented to Kelly Kucera, Director-at-Large, Communications. The 2019 awards also included the recognition of 2018-2019 Chair Todd Seymour awarded by the MIC Council and presented by Chair Elect, Jenn Wade CMP.

The entire event was capped by a riveting closing address from Mark J. Lindquist, who bestowed upon attendees the 8 ways to reignite passion.

Meetings Industry Council (MIC) of Colorado Mission & Purpose:

The MIC of Colorado is a coalition of 13 professional organizations related to the meetings and events industry. The Council’s purpose is to enhance collaboration among participating organizations through networking and education, while being the main source for industry knowledge and consultation as well as foster the continued growth of the meetings and event industry in Colorado.
